

PROM CHECKLIST

- GET A DATE, OR DON'T:
Prom night is about getting pretty and having fun, whether you're plus one or flying solo.
- CORSAGE COACHING:
Boys don't spend time browsing the flower shop so give your plus one some direction. Color? Size? Shape?
- BAG A BOUTONNIERE:
No time to slack—order something handsome for your date so you can turn your attention to more important things: like your outfit.
- HITCH A RIDE: Whether four wheels or two, your chariot awaits—as long as you've booked it.
- SAY YES TO THE DRESS: Stop procrastinating. Commit to your dress or someone else will.
- ALTER GIRLS: Hemline too long? Something feel tight? Leave time for the tailor to work her magic.
- HAIR APPARENT:
Don't leave your 'do until the eleventh hour. Assemble a get-pretty strategy that's true to your personal style.
- EXTRA, EXTRA: Don't forget the details. From your bag to your bling, plan out your head-to-toe look.
- PICK YOUR POLISH COLOR: Simple or snazzy, make sure your digits are ready to party.
- PHOTO OP: Decide when and where photos are being taken so that the paparazzi (err, your parents) can be there to capture your best side.
- PARTY SHOE PREP: There's nothing worse than sore feet on the dance floor, so take your shoes for a pre-prom spin.
- BE A KIT GIRL:
You've put in too much time to let a mini-disaster spoil your evening: put together a "fashion emergency" kit packed with essentials—mascara, Band-Aids, stain remover, blotting sheets, safety pins, fashion tape and lip gloss.
- PUT TOGETHER YOUR POST-PARTY LOOK:
Whether you're beach-bound or doing a low-key date night, have a costume change ready.
- CHARGE YOUR CAMERA:
You don't want to have to beg pictures off your besties, so make sure you're powered up and ready to flash a smile.
